About the Ohio Museums Association

Founded in 1976 by members of the Ohio's museum community, the Ohio Museums Association is a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization. OMA works with a variety of museums, museum professionals and providers of museum services to strengthen the state's museum, foster excellence in the field and support the museum community.

Mission Statement

The Ohio Museums Association is the leading advocate for connecting and empowering Ohio museums and museum professionals.

The Ohio Museums Association strengthens museums by advocating for and serving as the unified voice of the Ohio Museum Community;

Connects institutions through conferences, workshops, collaboration and access to resources;

Empowers museum professionals through education and networking;

Inspires audiences by promoting excellence and fostering a life-long love of museums.

Service Statement

OMA serves Ohio arboretums, aquariums, anthropology museums, art museums, art center and galleries, botanical gardens, ethnic museums, general museums, heritage centers, history museums, historic houses, historic parks and sites, historical societies, natural history museums, nature centers, planetariums, science and technology centers, youth and children's museums and zoos.
